

Rosemarie is a senior lawyer with Berkson Wallace with offices both in Birkenhead and Ellesmere Port, Wirral. She is the head of the Property Department.

Rosemarie has significant experience in all aspects of domestic conveyancing, both in sales, purchases and re-mortgages, having been involved in the legal profession for over 30 years.

Because of her extensive experience in private practice, Rosemarie has a wealth of experience in relation to a broad spectrum of the law, which in this day and age, can be advantageous, when so many aspects of life are cross related.

Rosemarie is supported by a team of nine, all of whom are able to deal with any queries and work on their own initiative. They receive ongoing training to ensure that their experience increases.
